

At nine o'clock on Monday

Prepositions of time

At nine o'clock on Monday

We have geography

At ten o'clock on Tuesday

The lesson's chemistry.

At two o'clock on Wednesday

It's time for history

At three o'clock on Thursday

That's biology.

French on Friday morning

Art in the afternoon

Homework at the weekend

But summer's coming soon.

In summer there's a holiday

And at Christmas too

And once a year my birthday

On the twenty-first of June.
